

SOUTH OAKLEIGH
COLLEGE

Student Image Consent Form

Dear Parents and Guardians,

Several publications are used to promote the College's programs and student achievements. These publications include images of students without names being attached. During your child's time at South Oakleigh College, we may take photographs and videos to showcase various events at the College. These images may be used in (and are not limited to) internal communications such as TV talking points and Yearbooks, as well as external communications such as Print Materials (brochures, flyers, magazines), social media, Website, Billboards and Newsletter.

Occasionally the College holds events with external agencies that may wish to take photos or clips of the students without names being attached for their publications.

Please contact the College if you do not wish your child's image to be used for publicity purposes.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Koziaris
College Principal
